Claims 68-83 and 107-114 are presented for examination.

The amendments and remarks filed on may 12, 2008 have been received and entered.

Claims 68-83 and 107-114 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103 (a) as being unpatentable over Gorenbein et al. (^,200,601) in view of Petrus (US 6,573,299) and further in view of Thomas (US 5,811,446) for the reasons set forth on pages 5-8 of the office action of November 12, 2009 and the following reasons.

Thomas teaches the use of astaxanthin in an ophthalmic formulation in combination with other active ingredients for protecting eye from various eye conditions and the treatment of inflammation resulting from various causative agents. See the abstract, claims 28 and 30. The above reference makes clear that astaxanthin has been previously used in an ophthalmic formulation for the treatment of inflammation and protecting eye from various eye disorders.

Applicant's arguments and remarks have been carefully considered, but are not deemed to be persuasive. Applicant in his remarks argues the use of astaxanthin instead of zeaxanthin taught by the prior art. Such arguments in view of the newly relied upon reference are considered to be moot.

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within

TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
